COUNTRY NEWS.

Bristol, June 14. A few Days since, the Body of a Boy about 8 Years old was taken out of a Pond that supplies a Mill at Compton Dando near Pensford, about 5 Miles from this City. The Body appeared to have been most inhumanely used: For round its Neck was a black List, as if it had been hang'd; and in several Parts of it were divers long Blisters, the Effect of Poison; but what is most shocking, the barbarous Wretch attempted to burn it; for its Nose was quite burnt off;
his Eyes burnt out, his Breast and Face as black as a Hat, his Head as big as a Gallon Pail, and all the Parts that the Fire had touch'd harden'd like a burnt Pig. The Body appear'd so barbarously used, that it was difficult to tell whether it was human or not. The Deceased was the Nephew of one Perry, a Coal-Miner, with whom the Child lived. Perry and Wife, and a Kinswoman who lived with them, were taken up on Suspicion, and the Jury brought in their Verdict, Wilful Murder against the Wife only, the Husband and Kinswoman appearing at present ignorant of the Murder. Indeed the Verdict seems to be chiefly founded on Circumstances, arising from some Expressions
she dropp'd at the House of one Thomas Broad.
The Deceased had been missing since Whit-sua-Eve, when he was seen cutting Furze on the Common; but Perry's Wife telling Broad that the Boy was gone to Sea, and her Neighbours reciting to the Jury how barbarously the Deceased used to be served, even kept without Shoe or Stocking, and almost naked during the late severe Weather, as also that she would often wring his Privy Parts, &c. there seems to be sufficient Ground for a violent Suspicion. And notwithstanding the Husband is clear'd, yet it was sworn on the Inquest, that some Months ago he hung the Deceased up by the Jaws, strip, two Foot from the Ground, and whipp'd him with plaited Elm-twigs in a barbarous Manner.

Trowbridge, June 14. On Monday last, Thomas Mast, alias Marsh, and Daniel Webb commonly known by the Name of General Webb, Clothworkers, were committed to Salisbury Gaol by John Thresher, Esq; on the Information of William Coombs, their Accomplice, for entering the Shear-shop of Mr. James Griffith Clothier, of this Place, their Master, between the Hours of 12 and 1 on Saturday Morning the 7th Instant, and breaking the Compting house adjoining to the said Shop, with Intent to rob it, apprehending a large Sum of Money to be lodg'd there. Mr. Griffith coming home and hearing a Noise, call'd to know who was there; upon which the Ruffians swore to Coombs, that if he did not go out and knock Mr.
Griffith down they would dash out his Brains: Coombs
being terrify'd with these Threats, rush'd out upon Mr.
Griffith, and struck at him severaltimes with a large Hatcher, who retreated, and defended himself in the best Manner he could; and came off with the Loss only of the Use of one or two of his Fingers, and a great deal of Blood, after which the Villains fled without their Booty. They were pursued and two of them taken at the House of one Martha Hancock of this Place, hidden under a Bed adjacent to their own Lodging-room. Coombs was committed to the Prison at Devizes.

We hear, that on Midsummer-day next, that great and eminent Patriot Mr. A--- H---, one of the present S---s of the C---y of L---n, will give a grand Entertainment, in which there will be a very magnificent Desert representing the taking the Town an Castle of Porto de la Plata, by Capt. Hall with four Men only.

Last Week there was a great Boxing-match at his Majesty's Bear-garden at Hackley in the Hole, at which the Author of the Champion being present, Capt. Vinegar, after the Battle was over, ordered him to be toss'd in a Blanket, for the Diversion of the Company, for presuming to prefix his Name to such a Heap of Scurrility, Impudence and Nonsense.

Letters from Berlin say, That M. Eckard, Cabinet Counsellor to the late King, who was retir'd into Prussia, had receiv'd Orders to depart that Kingdom forthwith; and that his present Majesty has taken the House from him which was given him by his late Father, in order, as 'tis said, to give it to some other Favourite.

Those of the 4th of June from Francfort say, That his Prussian Majesty hath recall'd the Count de Degenfeld to his Court, to place him at the Head of Affairs: This Gentleman was the late King of Prussia's Plenipotentiary to his Britannick Majesty, and afterwards went to Francfort, to reside there as Minister from his Prussian Majesty to the Circle of the Rhine. He was also a Major General of the King of Prussia's Forces, and is a Knight Commander of the Order of the Black Eagle. He is a Nobleman of good Extraction, was born in the Palatinate, and spent his Youth in the Service of the Elector Palatine, when from a Calvinist he turn'd Catholick; but the Baron De POLLNITZ, who gives this Account of him in the First Volume of his Memoirs, says he was some Years after reconciled to his former Communion, and marry'd in England a Cousin of his, the Daughter of the Duke of Schomberg, with whom he had a very great Estate, as also another from his Aunt, Madame la Raugrave a Palatine, who dy'd about seven Years ago at Francfort, where the Count makes the best Figure of any Nobleman in that City. That Lady was the last of the Blood of the Protestant Palatine Princes; and the Baron in the Volume above-mention'd gives a curious Piece of Secret History relating to her Family, with a Key to it: to which we refer.

Extract of a Letter from Carolina, dated May 3.

"A few Days past the Shoreham Man of War brought in here a large Spanish Scooner Privateer, with 20 Guns and 80 Men, taken off of the Havana. Just now the Squirrel Man of War brought in a Sloop going from the Havana for St. Augustin's, with 5000 Pieces of Eight."

Extract of a Letter from St. Eustatia, dated April 20.

"A Sloop is arriv'd here from Caracca, with Advice, that one of the Biscay Ships from St. Andro had brought in with her an English Guinea Ship with 250 Negroes, which she took in her Passage to the Windward of Barbados; but they know not the Ship or Master's Name."

The Greyhound Man of War, Capt. Ambrose, sailed from Lisbon the 6th of May, O.S. for Gibraltar.

The Deal Castle Man of War, Capt. West, arriv'd at Lisbon the 14th of May, and sail'd again the 16th Distr on a Cruise.

The Robert and Sarah, Darlow, Master, with 50 Pipes of Wine from Oporto for Lyme, was taken the 31st of May N. S. by a Spanish Privateer in coming over the Bar.

Yesterday a certain Clerk lately belonging to the Six Clerks Office (who some time since was detected in cutting off several of the Stamps, and embezzling the Records which were lodg'd in the said Office) was brought up by Habeas Corpus from Newgate to the King's Bench Bar, and after hearing Council as well on behalf of the Crown as for the Defendant, he was remanded back to Newgate, and a Bill of Indictment was ordered to be preferred against him for a Misdemeanour.

Yesterday Morning died at his Lodgings at Dawley in the County of Middlesex, Capt. Wentworth, Captain of a Company of Invalids, and who had the Command of a Squadron at the Rebellion at Preston, where he had one of his Legs shot off.

Yesterday Morning about 2 o'Clock a Fire broke out at the Back of St. Thomas' Hospital, which burnt one House and damaged two others.

Yesterday their Graces the Dukes of Dorset and Montague took the Oaths in the High Court of Chancery to qualify themselves as Lords of the Regency.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

S O exceedingly valued by Ladies Quality and all who have used it, for its transcendent Excellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands, most exquisite Perfection possible, is to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Paul's Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpresible fine Air to the Features of the Spot, and a surprising Hand-someness to the Hands, which it immediately makes exceeding smooth and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can sooner or more certainly avail against all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimpls, Head-aches, Morphew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Sun, Sun-burn, or any other Discoloring, nor remove all these perfectly; for it quickly makes the Skin become fair, plump, soft, and beautifully white, and cause Admiration in the Beholders.

It really gives a most engaging resplendent Brightness whole Countenance, and easies sparkling Life, Spirit, and mire Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is not Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, and to the Face, Neck, or Hands, and the brown, red, and black to a natural, youthful Fairness, Smoothness, and making Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; this ROYAL BEAUTIFIER prepared from the leaf of Mercury, or any Thing Metallic, but is perfectly safe and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has a pleasant Scent, will not soil the fine Linen, and is agreeable to use.

But these its admirable Properties, by which it exceeds any Thing whatsoever for the like Purpose, have many to imitate it under various other Names, before of such Impostors, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given such universal Satisfaction to the Ladies of Distinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyshop above-mentioned at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Labels and no where else in England.

The incomparable POWDER for Cleaning the TEETH.

Has withstood, by its most excellent and known Virtues, Attempts of many repeated Counterfeits; some sold it by the Name of Powder, others under several other Names; therefore pray take Notice, that the only true and original Powder, is sold nowhere else, but smoothes below: It is sent for in large Quantities from the Colonies beyond the Seas, where good Allowance is given as effectual in the East and West Indies as at London.

I T has given surprizing Satisfaction to most of the Nobility and Gentry in England, in Years past, that it hath been published, and will Quicke of it still continue to be sold.

It is sold only at Mrs King's Toyshop, the Bluecoat, against the Cross-Keys Tavern in Cornhill, and at Markham's Toy-shop, the Seven Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, and no where else in England each Box.

At once using it makes the Teeth as white as Ivory, so black or yellow before, and effectually preserves them from rotting or decaying, continuing them sound to exceed the Age. It wonderfully cures the Scurvy in the Gums, Rheum or Defluxion, kills the Worms at the Roots of the Teeth, and thereby hinders the Tooth-ach. It also fattens loose Teeth, being a neat cleanly Medicine, odorous and grateful Scent, and in Virtue far exceeding any ever yet found out for those Purposes.

All the Nobility, Gentry, &c. who send to Mrs King for the Powder for Teeth, are desired to give strict Orders to mistake the Shop (MARKHAM at length is sold by Seven Stars) because most of the Taymen in her Neighborhood, seeing Multitudes go to her Shop for it, have run up Counterfeits and sell their Stuff in Imitation of this and approved Powder, in Prejudice to the Publick, &c.

The LIP-SALVE.

Which is so much esteemed, and of so many Years experience, and whose Virtues vastly exceed any of the Counterfeits, since its first Publication, is sold at the Places at 1 s. each Box.

For in two or three Hours time it heals them, the rough or chopp'd prevents the Skin from peeling, and makes them delicately soft and smooth, giving them a becoming Colour; the Fragrancy of its Odour also renders Breath fine and sweet, and it may be eaten for its Sake.
